INDEX

THE following index, constructed under a single alphabet, embraces everything of importance in the complete work. It is not merely an amalgamation of the eighteen indexes which have appeared already, but is, to a large extent, an original and distinct work. The previous indexes naturally form the basis, but much alteration has taken place owing to the many omissions of redundant or unnecessary references, as well as to the addition of others which have not appeared previously. Long and ungainly references which would have accumulated under such headings as "story" and "jātaka" have been removed from the index bodily, and form, as we have seen already, separate Appendixes earlier in the present volume. References to works under the authors' names are to be found in the Bibliography in Volume IX. Here they are indexed alphabetically under the name of the work or article in question. The double-column has been used in preference to the three-column setting, which had to be employed in previous indexes owing to the consideration of space.
